THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY ALBERT PIKE & CO. MEMPHIS, TENN., FRIDAY, JULY 24, 1868. VOL. XVIII.—NO. 313

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

The APPEAL, the largest and cheapest weekly paper in Tennessee, will be sent to subscribers for the ensuing four months as a campaign paper, at the very low rates given below.

As a Campaign paper, the APPEAL will make its readers acquainted with all current political events, and whatever else may be of interest. It will express its own opinions fully and freely as heretofore, and continue to observe the rules of conduct that have always governed it. It has no new processions to make.

THE WEEKLY CAMPAIGN APPEAL

Will be supplied to Clubs for the four ensuing months:

5 copies for	$ 5 00
10 " "	8 00
15 " "	10 00
20 " "	12 00

A copy gratis will be sent to the friend who sends us a Club at these rates.

The Daily paper will be sent to Clubs at $3 for four months.

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantees of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern states in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is required for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligation is ambiguous, the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, excluding Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the labor of the laborer, and the property of the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction in the number of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made sound; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the States into military districts, and subjecting the people, in time of peace, to a standing army, and the supplanting the civil authority and the writ of habeas corpus, in the States, by military power; the immediate restoration of all the States to their full representation in all the departments of the Government, and the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an efficient national currency, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national liberty; constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these and other reforms and retrenchments we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its every step, from its seizure of power to the present day, of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government, and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judiciary tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the base purpose of a partisan and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has sought to appoint the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off the subjection to the British Crown, the principles and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and prohibited exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be merged into a National form, and unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of the country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to actual bona fide settlers, at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

EAGLE COTTON GINS.

We are the Sole Agents for the sale of these unrivalled Gins. For beauty of STAPLE, LIGHTNESS OF DRAFT, AND QUANTITY OF LINT COTTON turned out per day, they are unsurpassed. Reference can be given, fully made to every planter who has given them a fair trial. Where music power is used, they make a saving of from one-quarter to one-third the draft over all other Gins. MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

ARNOLD'S TREACHERY.

A New Version of an Old Story—How he Attempted to Surrender West Point—Interesting Statements.

In his address to the graduating class of the Military Academy at West Point, June 15th, Professor Coppee told anew, and with interesting details not generally known, the story of Arnold's attempted surrender of the fort at West Point, to the British, in the Revolutionary war, as follows: On the 22d day of February, 1780, Gen. Arnold returned from his interview with Maj. Andre, at and near the house of Joshua Hett Smith, to his quarters at Beverly, and then made all the preliminary arrangements for the surrender of this post, but without, as far as known, taking any one into his confidence. On the 24th, the British were to come up the river and take West Point. This was well-timed, as Washington was not expected to return from Hartford until the 26th. Most unexpectedly, however, he changed his plans and returned through Dutchess county to Fishkill on the 24th. He stayed that night with the French Embassador, who was there, and, in happy ignorance of the snaky treason whose final coil was being wound, he took saddle before the dawn of the 25th, in order to reach Gen. Arnold's headquarters in time to breakfast with the General and Mrs. Arnold, and then go to inspect the works at West Point. Some soldiers had gone before with Washington's baggage, to announce his purpose to Arnold; but as the spy preached from Arnold's house, he turned off toward the river. Lafayette, who was riding with him, exclaimed: "General, that is the wrong way; you know Mrs. Arnold is waiting for us." Washington replied, in a pleasant way, "All the young men are in love with Mrs. Arnold," and added, "Go and take your breakfast, and tell Mrs. Arnold not to wait for me; that I will be there by and by." So the staff went to Arnold's house and took breakfast, the countenance of the host, cold-blooded as was the man, being unable to conceal his secret trouble and misgivings. The British had not come, and there were no failings. Washington had arrived two days before he was expected. While at breakfast, Lieutenant Allen, of Arnold's command, came in with a letter. It was from below. He tore it open, expecting to read news of the enemy's movement up the river. Horror and astonishment! the tidings from Major Jameson, that Major Andre was in his hands, a prisoner and a spy. Leaping from his seat, he announced to his guests that an urgent message called for his presence at West Point; and he left as a message, should Gen. Washington arrive before his return, that he would return as soon as possible. He then went to his wife's room and sent for her. In a few words he announced the necessity of going at once to the British lines. Leaving her in a swoon on the floor, he rushed out, mounted one of the horses of Washington's cavalcade in waiting at the door, galloped down a steep pathway to Beverly dock, got in his six-oared barge and ordered the oarsmen to pull with a will for Teller's Point, promising them an extra ration of rum and a reward in money, and telling them that he was hurrying that he might transact his business there and return without delay to meet with General Washington. As they passed Teller's Point, and neared the Vulture, man-of-war, he spread his white handkerchief as a flag of truce, and it rescued the British ship a traitor in safety, a villain under protection which could not fail. It was a race for life, and he won it. Just after Arnold's flight, Washington arrived at Beverly. On being told that Arnold had gone to West Point, he took a hasty breakfast and hurried over to meet him there. As the boat approached the landing, Washington was surprised to find that there was no salute, and no guard turned out to receive him. Indeed, the commanding officer, Col. Lamb, of the artillery, was leisurely strolling down the path as the barge landed. Confused when he saw the General-in-Chief, he stammered out: "Had I any idea, your Excellency was coming, I would have given you a proper reception." "Sir," exclaimed Washington, "is not Gen. Arnold here?" "No, sir, he has not been here these two days, and I have not heard from him in that time." Astonished, and recurring to his old suspicions, Washington inspected the works and returned about noon to Arnold's house. There Hamilton met him with the proofs of the treason, all the papers taken out of Andre's boot, which had by this time arrived. The messenger had arrived just four hours after Arnold's escape. Looking around him, he turned to Knox and Lafayette, and said in a solemn, almost heart-broken manner: "Whom can we trust now?"

TENNESSEE.

We take the following from the Nashville Banner of Wednesday:

—A nice little bill was introduced into the Board of Aldermen yesterday, to raise the salary of the First City Attorney from $2500 to $3000 per annum, the same to take effect on and after October next.

—A proposition has been received by the Board of Aldermen from the Mount Olivet Cemetery Company, offering to furnish single graves and make interments in their cemetery at a cost for each not exceeding the rates now established by law. It also states that no charges were made at the toll-gate for vehicles accompanying funerals.

—The Rev. Peter Lowry, colored, will leave Nashville to-morrow for Marshall, Lincoln, Franklin, Coffee and Warren counties, to collect money, already subscribed, for the permanent establishment of the Colored Manual Labor School at Stone's river. The object is a praiseworthy one, and should be encouraged by all good citizens.

Curious Invention.

An electrical organ was recently inaugurated in the Church of St. Augustin, Paris, a short description of which may be interesting. A single wire passing from the key to an electro-magnet communicates to it a galvanic current, thus obviating the old system of the long chain of wooden slips called trackers that required such hard thumping to cause them to move promptly. This electro magnet, by means of a small valve, works the pneumatic lever, which consists of a sort of bellows placed just under the wind valve of the pipe. These wires form a small bundle easily grasped by one hand. They supercede the whole system of trackers, give greater durability to the instrument and a lightness and equality of touch, which all organists can appreciate. Apart from this novelty of detail the St. Augustin organ, like its elder brother at St. Eustache, is distinguished by an exquisite beauty and purity of tone, particularly in those fancy stops (such as the hautboy, clarionet, bassoon, flute harmonique) which imitate instruments in the orchestra with a fidelity hitherto unattained. Likewise the vox humana stop is so perfect that on the day of the inauguration many of the persons present were deceived and thought that a human being had really begun to sing.

—The dressing at the summer resorts is not as extravagant or as flashy this season as last.

A ROYAL SPEECH.

The Prince of Wales on the Status of England and American Affairs.

From London, June 27th, the New York Herald's correspondent writes as follows:

I am authorized to state that the Prince of Wales made some very important semi-official declarations—previous to the levee which he held at St. James' Palace yesterday, by command of the Queen—in regard to the American policy of the British Government.

The occasion was an interview granted by the Prince to Bierstadt, the American painter, at which Colonel Sanderson, late of the United States army, was also present. In the inspection and commendation of Mr. Bierstadt's new pictures the Prince of Wales was joined by the Princess Louise, who happened to visit Marlborough House while the interview was in progress.

Referring to the account of the preparations for another Fenian invasion of Canada, the Prince of Wales said: "I hope that the United States Government will be sincere enough to persevere in its former policy in regard to those Fenians who attempt to invade Canada. We know that the American Presidential elections are imminent, and it is said by some persons that the politicians will be greatly influenced by the Irish votes. We hope, however, that the instincts of international justice will be sufficient to overrule mere political considerations, and that such an outrageous violation of the comity of nations as a permitted incursion of armed bands into Canada will be prevented by the United States authorities, who have always shown themselves most prompt in their observances of treaty obligations."

"A war between England and America," his Royal Highness added, "would be abhorrent to every principle of Christianity and humanity, and I may say that such a war can never occur in the ordinary course of events. But while such claims as those in regard to the Alabama are pending, it would, of course, be an act of folly to allow such breaches of treaty as an invasion of Canada, since, on the score of damages alone, the British Government would be able to make reclamations which would more than count rhalance even the Alabama claims. The United States and England are united by too many bonds to make war possible; but for myself, I am anxious to have every point in dispute amicably settled, and the two countries may then become one in policy, as they already are, I firmly believe, in sentiment and origin."

The Prince of Wales spoke with the greatest possible earnestness, and with much animation and even eloquence.

ALABAMA.

—The Warrior river has risen seven feet at Tuscaloosa, and was still rising on the 17th inst.

—The Greensboro Beacon reports the corn crop almost an entire failure in parts of Hale county.

—Lieut. Johnson's trial is progressing at Montgomery. Several witnesses at LaGrange, Ga., have been examined.

—James Owen, who killed Marshall Maxwell, at Montgomery, has been sent to the lunatic asylum.

—The army worm has appeared on one or more plantations near Hayneville, reducing the expectations of the crop one-half.

—Dan R. E. Harris, who is sitting at Montgomery as Representative of Limestone, is fresh from the jail of that county, having given bail to answer to a charge of bigamy.

—Since Saturday night, says the Mobile Tribune of the 21st, we have had two delightful showers, which, we understand, were general throughout this section.

—Friday night of last week a widow lady living about nine miles from Greenville was brutally outraged at her house by two negroes unknown to her, who were about to end by murdering her, but relented. A negro was arrested in Greenville the next day who is believed to be one of the villains.

—A negro man in Choctaw county, with two wives, was left by them in charge of the children, four in number. He went away leaving them shut up in the cabin, which took fire and they were burned up with the house. The Meridian Mercury says the three parents were at church together a day or two afterward, appearing to be perfectly indifferent.

—The election in Lowndes, says the Montgomery Advertiser, is declared null and void by Gen. Meade. On the first day of the Congressional Military Bayonet Legislature, members and senators were given seats from Lowndes. As the Radicals probably want all the members they can get, why not pass a resolution allowing seats to any persons designated from Henry and other counties where no election was held. A great many negroes about Montgomery would like to represent some county, like Miller, Ely, Brainard, and other adventurers did in the Convention last fall!

FOREIGN MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Paris Figaro reports that the Chessepot rifle is to be altered so as to adopt the Fougeroux cartridge, which only costs one cent each, whereas the old system costs double. According to the same authority the military consumption of cartridges in France, in time of peace is seventy-five millions annually, incurring an expense of about one and a half million dollars, which will now be reduced to half that amount.

—Several important failures are reported among the stock brokers (agents de change) on the Paris Exchange.

—A traveler on a railroad in France, desiring to purchase the Liberte, a Parisian paper, called to the newsboy at a station—"Eh, La Liberte." The newsagent immediately went up to the gentleman, requesting him not to compromise him. "Compromise you; what do you mean?" "Oh," replied the vender, "the authorities might think that I am crying 'La Liberte,' which has been strictly forbidden."

—The Paris Figaro reports that a suit has been commenced to obtain a divorce between Prince William of Hanau and the Princess Elizabeth of Schauenburg-Lippe. The Prince, being the issue of a Morganatic marriage, could not obtain the hand of the Princess, so he eloped with her, and shortly after they were married. Unfortunately the marriage has tended to much unhappiness.

—It is a curious fact in connection with the Court of Holland that the King and Queen are never known to be present together. The King recently left for Lucerne, and at the same time the Queen's arrival from the baths was announced. The phlegmatic Dutch maliciously apply the soubriquets of the "Sun and the Moon" to the royal pair, inferring that they cannot be seen together.

—It is stated that the Garibaldian recruits now being enrolled secretly in Italy wear a black shirt, instead of the usual scarlet, on the breast of which are embroidered two letters, V. M. (Vengeance for Mentana.)

GEORGIA.

—The Augusta road, leading out of Savannah, is becoming unsafe to travelers, on account of the many highwaymen with which it is infested.

—Gen. Meade now declares that he was only jesting when he gave his famous description of the "sweat box" used at Fort Pulaski. The two negroes must have been "jesting" also, who swore to the same thing.

—The Mobile and Girard Railroad Company have made a contract with the Central Road, by which the latter indorses $250,000 of the latter's second mortgage bonds, and receives one-half of its stock for so doing.

—The Mobile and Girard Railroad having been furnished with the necessary funds by the Central Road is pushing on rapidly. They advertise a contract to build a 650 foot bridge over the Chattahoochie opposite Columbus.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The trot yesterday between the horses Commodore Vanderbilt and Capt. Gill, for $1000, mile heats, was won by the latter; best time, 2:32½.

A young German was robbed of his watch and $8000 on the Broadway bridge yesterday.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—At the meeting last night of the commission appointed to present the resolutions to the Reconstruction Committee, several speeches were made, and measures of relief suggested by Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts. He had prepared a bill providing that all persons holding public offices shall vacate, and that all those elected in the last election, shall, before entering upon office, take the oath prescribed by the act of 1862 (known as the iron-clad oath.) If those who received the majority of votes cannot take it, then the commander of the military district shall substitute a provisional government.

The Mississippians at the meeting expressed themselves satisfied with Mr. Wilson's propositions.

After further proceedings, Mr. Williamson, of Virginia, offered a resolution, which was passed, that Congress be earnestly solicited to empower the Virginia State Convention to vacate all offices held by persons disqualified by the fourteenth constitutional amendment; to fill all the offices with loyal men; to fix the time of the election postponed by Gen. Schofield, and to make arrangements for holding said election. The Convention then adjourned.

Senator Sherman does not believe it possible for the Conference Committee to reconcile the difference that exists between the Senate and the House Funding bills.

Senator Morton is to be married on Thursday night to Miss Cortland, of Baltimore.

BOSTON, July 23.—It is now stated that the skeleton recently discovered in Kingston, Mass., was half a mile from the scene of Cornelius Holmes' murder, and is supposed to have belonged to a tailor named Jones, who disappeared sixty-four years ago, just before the birth of Deacon Andrews.

NEW YORK, July 23.—A letter from the City of Mexico says a leading paper there had an article intimating that a coalition of European powers with the United States was being discussed, the aim of which will be to divide up Mexico and sell it out to the American Government.

HOTELS.

AMERICAN HOUSE,

BOSTON, MASS.

THE very important and extensive improvements which have recently been made in this popular Hotel, the largest in New England, enable the proprietors to offer to Tourists, Families and the Traveling Public, accommodations and conveniences superior to any other Hotel in the city. During the past summer additions have been made of numerous suites of apartments, with bathing-rooms, water-closets, etc., attached; one of Tufts' magnificent passenger elevators, the best ever constructed, conveys guests to the upper story of the house in one minute; the entries have been newly and richly carpeted, and the entire house thoroughly replenished and refurnished, making it, in all its appointments, equal to any hotel in the country.

THE LIFE AND REMAINS

—OF—

Gen. WILLIAM T. HASKELL

Now being compiled and arranged

By Rev. R. H. RIVERS.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are solicited to this work, which, when compiled, will embrace between four and five hundred 12 mo. pages, printed upon calendered paper in bold, clear type, and bound in a creditable manner.

Gen. HASKELL was one of the most brilliant men and eloquent orators that Tennessee has ever given to our common country. This will be shown not only by a brief and truthful narrative of the chief incidents of his eventful life, but by presenting the reader with his Remains, consisting of Poems, Essays, Letters and Orations.

If the personal friends and admirers of the great Tennessean will subscribe liberally at once, the work can be delivered by November, 1868.

The profits arising from the sale of the work will be devoted to erecting a monument to his memory.

Terms—$3 per copy, payable on delivery.

Brownlow and His Work.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

The infamous politic gorilla, who calls himself the Governor of Tennessee, has distinctly threatened to gut and clean out the Democratic party of the State. No man professing to be at the head of the Executive Department of the State, and is capable of using such language, will hesitate to execute his threat if he has the power to do it. Now, even William G. Brownlow is not foolish enough to believe that he is able, with his black-and-tan militia of Tennessee, to do that thing. He knows that his ability to carry out his threat depends upon the help of Gen. Grant. He no doubt has such assurances, or he would not put himself in the position of making an idle threat which he knew he could not execute. What then is the spectacle presented to the American people? A candidate for the Presidency comes before the people at the head of the American army and sword in hand says to them, "make me your President! It is true you are free and can vote as you please, but you must have peace, and if you don't vote for me I will run a bayonet through you." One of his tools, the so-called Governor of Tennessee, says he will "gut and clean out" all who oppose him. He undertakes the task and finding himself unable to do it, he calls upon the man with the sword in hand, at the head of the army, and the candidate whose election forms the prize to be won, and he steps in. What is this but election by the sword? Do we dream? Or is this a reality perpetrated upon the soil that covers the bones of Jackson? It is vain to close our eyes to the fact—the ballot carried upon the point of the bayonet!! Citizens of the North, where are you? Where is the bossted freedom for which Washington and his compeers fought? Where even the degree of freedom which the Barons of England wrung from the tyrant John at Runnymede? Gone!!! Gone down to the tombs of our fathers!

CAMDEN.

WE take the following from the Richmond (Va.) Daily Enquirer and Examiner of the 13th inst. Dr. Millington was for several years a resident of our city, and was well known to most of the old citizens, among whom he leaves many warm and earnest friends:

"DIED.—At his residence in this city, on Friday, July 10, 1868, Dr. John Millington, formerly of the faculty of William and Mary College, Virginia, in the ninetieth year of his age."

This eminent English chemist and practical miner departed this life at the residence of his son-in-law, in this city, at a very advanced age, since our last issue. He was born at Hammer, South London, May 1, 1779. He was in early life associated with McAdams, whose roads have immortalized his name. He resided in Mexico for several years, and engaged in the mining business. Subsequently he became Professor of Chemistry in old William and Mary College, in this State, and filled that chair with great acceptance for twelve years. Afterwards he became Professor of Chemistry and Geology in the University of Mississippi. At a ripe old age he retired to private life, to enjoy the pleasures of home associations.

Well do we remember the familiar 'yeat' with which the boys greeted his coming at the lecture room of William and Mary. But full of years he sleeps, and the dial-hand of memory will point to his useful life to encourage emulation of his virtues."

LYNCH LAW IN INDIANA.

Three of the Express Robbers Hung by a Vigilance Committee.

From the Cincinnati Commercial 23d.]

Our readers have already been made aware of this state of things through our publications of the many murders, house burnings, horse stealings, counterfeiting operations and daring express robberies, that have taken place near Seymour, Ind., by the Renos, their companions and pupils. Every effort made thus far, by detectives from other points, to weed out these murdering devils, has failed, in a measure, at least. Life and property have continued at their mercy. Within two years they have robbed the Adams Express Company alone of $125,000. A robbery of this kind occurred also, lately, on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad, where the American Express Company was robbed of a large amount. All these robberies have emanated from the same source. A family named Reno, living at Rockford, two miles from Seymour, have been the leaders or instigators of the whole of these daring outrages. They are also the parties who led the raid in Iowa last spring, when so many county safes were robbed.

On the 22d of May last, the Adams Express Company's car was robbed, about eighteen miles from Seymour, on the line of the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis Railroad. This robbery was done by the Renos and their friends, some of whom are now in Canada to avoid capture, and others are under arrest for this outrage. On the 10th instant the Adams Express was again attempted to be robbed, on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, about thirteen miles west of Seymour. The armed guards of the company, however, repulsed the robbers, captured one, and wounded some of the others, two of whom have since been captured; and for the remainder a large reward has been offered. James Volney Ellet was one of this gang, and was captured on the night of the attempted roobery.

Charles Roseberry, a resident of Seymour, and a pupil of the Renos, was afterward arrested by the citizens of Seymour, who turned out en masse. Frail Clifton was also arrested. They all owned up to their connection with the affair, and also the attempt to kill the guards.

For safe keeping these three men were brought up to this city, and imprisoned temporarily in the various stations, as had been several other parties arrested on suspicion of connection with the robbery in May last, when $96,000 rewarded the robbers. They were held here until night before last, when they left in charge of an officer of the Adams Express Company, and heavily ironed, for Brownstown, twelve miles west of Seymour. Every possible precaution had been taken to keep their departure a secret. It was feared that it might become known to some of the rascals' companions, and that a rescue might be the result. No interference was apprehended from others. The officers had no idea that stern and determined men, who had become aroused to desperation by outrage, had their eyes upon these men, and that they were doomed. It must have been that faithful agents of the Vigilance Committee had watched the stations of the city closely, and telegraphed immediately to Seymour the signal for prompt action; for, when the passenger train was swiftly rolling towards Brownstown, two miles west of Seymour, a little after midnight yesterday morning, the engineer saw far ahead in the darkness of a dense wood a brightly gleaming eye of fire that warned him to stop for something, he knew not what. Hardly had the train ceased to move, when it was surrounded on all sides by the dark forms of a hundred or more armed men, who did not say much, but acted very promptly. They held muskets and revolvers in their hands, and quietly stood guard while their leaders, with a strong squad, went through the train and laid strong hands upon the trembling desperadoes, and, without meeting any useless resistance, marched them out into the wood. The engineer had objected to their way of doing things, and threatened to move on. But he quietly submitted to the detention when he was informed that if he did this he would sacrifice many lives, as the track was blockaded.

What was done by the self-constituted executioners out in the woods, we can not state in detail. How the doomed men conducted themselves, what they said and how they pleaded for lifeas the ropes were being fastened around their necks and thrown over the limbs of one of the strong old forest trees, we can not say. There were no reporters there to report that triple death—to take down coolly and accurately the last trembling utterances of the dying wretches. The story is known only to those who had a hand in the affair.

In the morning these three lifeless bodies were seen hanging on the tree.

In Seymour, and for many miles around, nothing was thought of or talked of yesterday but the work of the Vigilance Committee; and the following proclamation, quite generally distributed, managed to keep the matter fresh:

"ATTENTION, THIEVES!—The attention of all thieves, robbers, assassins and vagrants, together with their aiders, abettors and sympathisers, is called to the doings of the Seymour Vigilance Committee last night.

"We are determined to follow this up until all of the classes above-named, whether imported or to the 'manor born,' are driven forever from our midst.

"Threats have been made of retaliation in case we should resort to capital punishment. In answer we say, should one of our committee be harmed, or a dollar's worth of property of any honest man be destroyed by persons unknown, we will swing by the neck until they be dead, every thieving character we can lay our hands on, without inquiring whether we have the persons who committed that particular crime or not. This applies not only to Seymour, but along the line of the two roads, and wherever the organization exists. Law and order must prevail."

ARKANSAS.

We take the following items from the Pine Bluff Southern Vindicator:

—We are informed that throughout the country the crops look splendid. We had several fine showers within the past week, and one of the heaviest rains we ever witnessed last Tuesday.

—The negroes are practicing shooting. One was killed lately on the Warren place, and another mortally wounded on the Taylor place.

—Last week nearly all the negro prisoners in the county jail made their escape. Capt. Murphy, city constable, went in pursuit and caught two of them.

—Capt. J. G. Ryan, editor of this paper, was arraigned before Judge Nordman, last Tuesday, on a charge of assault, with intent to kill, on the person of Capt. Vaughan, now sheriff of this county. Col. O. A. Bradshaw, and Col. H. King White conducted the defense. Several witnesses were examined, and sufficient evidence elicited to justify the Judge in placing the defendant under bond to appear at next court. During the examination the court was several times interrupted by that great man, Col. Grace, who was finally ejected from the room. The conduct of Capt. Vaughan, in the matter of the prosecution, was of a truly magnanimous nature. He showed no disposition to prosecute, but on the contrary, wished to have nothing to do with the affair.

—We have seen some genuine cotton worms in town in the last few days. They were feeding voraciously on the few cotton leaves in which they were brought. They do not appear to be about in great numbers, as we have heard little complaint.—Ouachita Telegraph.

Death of Mr. Leutze.

We regret to announce the sudden death, yesterday, in this city, of Mr. Leutze, the celebrated artist. Broken health, augmented by the great physical prostration produced by the late protracted heat of the weather, was the main cause of his decease. He had opened a studio at the corner of Eleventh and G streets, and it is but as a day since that we had the pleasure to see the work of his famed pencil in delineating the face of Mr. Suter, of California. Mr. Leutze has a world-wide fame, but of his particular artistic life and works we reserve comment until to-morrow. His daughter has been with him in this city, while Mrs. Leutze is now abroad upon an errand in connection with a high position in the world of art which has been recently proffered to her distinguished husband in Europe. Mr. Leutze was born in Wurtemberg, but his early artistic life was spent in this country. Subsequently trained to the highest pitch of the profession at Dusseldorf, he returned to America, and has here left products of his genius that shall endure through all time. He has unquestionably held the first rank as an artist in this country, and his death is now most deeply deplored.—National Intelligencer, 21st.

Donations to Gen. Butler.

From the Richmond Examiner.]

We learn that for some months past that most callous and impenitent of thieves, B. F. Butler, has been made to roar like a pricked bull calf, by the diverting persecutions of a countless host of tormentis.

From all sections of the country, from Maine to Alaska—from the North, the South, the East and the West—worthless old spoons have been sent to the Beast by express and by mail. Spoons of wood, bone, horn, pewter, tin, iron and brass, pour in upon him at all hours. The plague of spoons is becoming more unendurable to Butler than a plague of frogs. Baskets of spoons are brought to him from the postoffice, and the express carts are constantly delivering them at his door. And the donor of each spoon accompanies his present with remarks by no means flattering to Butler's integrity. And as the spoons are utterly worthless, they are said to drive the Beast almost mad with rage. It was once a custom to pillory a rogue at some street crossing, where every passer by might hurl a rotten egg at him, or a few abusive words. Let the people of this country keep up this wholesome custom of sending Butler spoons. Let him be reminded every hour and day of his life that he is everywhere remembered as a robber of plate chests. Let every family make annually the votive offering of a broken and battered spoon, marked "B. F."

Night Dispatches.

BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE, July 23.—A negro named Bill Love yesterday made a foul assault on a lady near Bellair, in Hereford county, and while being taken before a magistrate was taken from the officers by a mob and hanged.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The match billiard game of 1500 points for $500, between Prof. Carnie and Joseph Vermillion, last night was won by the former, Vermillion making only 353 points.

Gen. Singleton was nominated for Congress, yesterday, by the Democratic Convention of the Fourth District.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, July 23.—A number of influential negroes here are getting signatures to a petition to the Legislature, which meets next Monday, to enfranchise the whites.

A committee, composed of J. C. Brown, A. M. Looney, D. C. Whitthorne and others, left for Knoxville to-day, to present a petition to Gov. Brownlow, asking him to recommend to the Legislature the enfranchisement of the white population, now denied the right of suffrage.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 23.—The bill appropriating the special funds in the State Treasury to defraying the expenses of the Legislature, which was vetoed by Gov. Warmouth, was yesterday passed by both Houses over the veto.

A bill calling upon the commander of the army for military assistance, was adopted by both Houses.

The House passed a resolution appointing a committee to frame a new charter for the city of New Orleans.

The printing bill, as finally passed yesterday, gives the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House entire control of the State, municipal and parochial printing, and virtually empowers them to establish a Radical paper in each parish in the State.

Jewell, of the Printing Committee, in speaking in opposition to the bill, offered to do the work defined for the official journal of the State, at one-half the rates prescribed, and pay the State a bonus of $50,000 in gold yearly, and give a bond of $100 000 for the same.

Poindexter, a negro and Radical, spoke and voted against the bill, on the ground of the enormous taxation it would involve.

O'Hara, another Radical, advocated the bill on the ground that it was to support the Radical party.

When the final vote was taken, the Democrats left the house.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The President this morning signed the spirits and tobacco bill, accompanied by a protest, which is filed in the State Department.

It is understood that the appointment of Supervisors is given to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The President has nominated to the Senate Gen. L. N. Jeffries, of Md., to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Samuel Milligan as Judge of the Court of Claims, to supply a vacancy, and J. M. Keating to be postmaster at Memphis, Tennessee.

The Committee on Ways and Means this morning postponed until Congress again elects the bill for the abolition of the public workhouses in the Atlantic cities.

The Committee on Reconstruction added to the Texas bill, Virginia and Mississippi, providing provisional governments for those States. The bill will be reported at the earliest opportunity.

The Committee from the meeting of Southern Representatives and Loyalists were to-day unable to present their resolutions to the Reconstruction Committee, which had not the time to receive them.

The following is the bill introduced in the Senate to-day by Wilson:

Be it enacted, etc., That the present government of Mississippi being provisional only, and subject to the paramount authority of Congress, it is hereby provided that all the offices under said government shall be vacated on the passage of this act, and that the persons voted for at the recent election for the ratification of the Constitution, and for the election of officers under the same, who received a majority of the votes cast, shall vote; upon the offices for which they were voted for, and shall constitute the provisional government of Mississippi until otherwise ordered by Congress; provided, that where any person voted for at the said election cannot take and subscribe to the oath required by the act entitled "an act to prescribe an oath of office, and for other purposes," approved July 2, 1862, the duties of the office for which he was elected shall devolve on the next person receiving the next highest vote.

Be it enacted, etc., That it shall be the duty of the military commander of the district of which Mississippi forms a part, to see that the provisions of this act are carried into immediate effect.

In the House, to-day, in the Missouri contested election case between Pile and Hogan, it was decided in favor of the former. In the Utah case, McGraud was declared entitled to the seat.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Wilson introduced a bill for a more efficient Provisional Government for Mississippi, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee; also some resolutions directing the Secretary of War to communicate to the Senate the facts relative to the trial of Rush, by a military commission, at New Orleans, for the murder of a negro boy, which were adopted.

Howe, from the Committee on Claims, reported the House bill relative to the award of $100 000 to the captors of Jefferson Davis, which was amended and passed. Howe also introduced a bill in addition to the several acts providing for suppressing insurrection against the government of the States, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The bill is as follows:

Be it enacted, etc., That in case of an insurrection in either of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana or Arkansas against the governments therein, which have been established in pursuance of the act of March 21st, 1867, and the several acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof, known as the reconstruction acts, it shall be the duty of the President, on the application of the Legislature of either of said States, or the Governor when the Legislature is not in session, to call forth such militia in that or any other State, or to employ so much of the land or naval force of the United States as may be so applied for to suppress such insurrection; provided that the authority hereby vested in the President shall be exercised only upon the application of the Legislature or Executive, or as the case may be, chosen in pursuance of the reconstruction acts aforesaid.

And be it further enacted, That so much of the section one of the act of February 28th, 1795, entitled "An act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, to repress insurrection, and to repel invasion, and to repeal the acts now in force for these purposes," and all other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Morrill, of Maine, offered a resolution directing the Committee on Finance to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue to bona fide holders, new bonds in the place of old bonds, which he is satisfied have been lost or destroyed, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

HOUSE.

The concurrent resolution of the Senate for an adjournment from the 27th inst. to the third Monday in September, was discussed at length, the debate involving the following topics: the Presidential election, impeachment, the funding bill, the tax bill, and the bill to distribute arms to the South; finally the previous question was seconded, and the resolution concurred in by 85 to 69.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Further Particulars about the Accident—The Trouble with the Engineers.

Directors Sustain the Superintendent.

From the St. Louis Republican 23d.]

The accident on the Pacific Railroad at Taylorwick on Tuesday night involved considerable destruction of property. As we stated, the freight train was thrown off the track about three miles distant from here. The train consisted of about fifteen cars, and left St. Louis at eight o'clock. The character of the freight was, as is usually the case, very miscellaneous, but on the whole, was not of a nature to be much injured by a shock. One of the cars contained a number of horses, and another twenty-two sheep. The engineer of the train was a man named Tine, against whom, it is said, some ill feeling existed on the part of some of the discharged engineers. He received no intimation of the tursing of the switch until the train was off the track and it was too late to avert the danger. Two of the cars were smashed to atoms, another nearly so, and the rear part of the tender badly injured. The loss has been wildly estimated at $20,000, but an examination into it shows it to be much less than this amount. None of the horses were seriously injured, but fifteen of the sheep were killed and the rest are missing. Part of the track was torn up. None of the company's servants on the train were injured. After leaving the track the train ran into a "cut," where it stopped. The track was repaired as soon as possible.

The switch was locked half an hour previously, and a passenger train passed safely over the track at the point.

As might have been expected, the occurrence of this accident, at the place and under the circumstances it did, has naturally excited no small amount of comment. People will connect it with the trouble between the superintendent and the engineers, and to the detriment of the latter. If it should be proven that the accident resulted from the act of any discharged employee of the road, we trust the most stringent measures will be adopted to arrest and punish the offenders. The officers of the road appear to think pretty generally that the accident did result from the act of some recently discharged employee. In fact, they say "there is no question about it." On the other hand, the strikers repudiate any hand in the matter and affirm it was an accident, resulting almost necessarily from the action of the superintendent in removing the switch lights.

The Board of Directors support Colonel Moore, as may be seen by the following, transmitted to him yesterday, after a meeting of the Board:

ST. LOUIS, JULY 21, 1868.

COL. H. C. MOORE, Superintendent Pacific Railroad:

SIR—The following resolution was adopted by the Directors of the Pacific Railroad at the meeting held this day:

"Resolved, That in view of the present strike or difficulty with the engine men on the road, the course pursued by our General Superintendent, Col. H. C. Moore, in putting on a new set of engineers in place of those disaffected or striking, is hereby approved, this Board being satisfied that there is no disposition to discharge any man who has and will continue to do his duty and conform to the rules and regulations of the Superintendent's Department. The said Superintendent is requested and instructed to persevere and use his best judgment in getting on a full set of engine men and to have the road in full operation at the earliest day possible, using every precaution and care possible to guard the switches, tanks and shops on the entire line of the road.

"Very Respectfully, yours, etc.,

"JACOB PORTER, Sec'y."

The protection of the road by the police was only intended as a temporary arrangement, and a strong special detective force has now been organized by the company and will be distributed over the line.

An accident occurred on Monday to the express train due yesterday morning. It ran over a cow at Little Blue, some miles east of Independence, and was delayed considerably.

Watchmen are now posted at the switches day and night all along the road.

CITY MATTERS.

NOTICE.

City subscribers to the APPEAL, daily or weekly, who may desire to leave the city for the summer, can have their papers sent them regularly by leaving a memorandum at the Counting-room of the APPEAL, No. 13 Jefferson street.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents who wish to have any attention paid to their communications must observe the following rules:

Be brief, concise and to the point, avoid the "flowers of rhetoric," and confine yourself to a plain statement of facts. Write on but one side of the paper in a clear hand, and with pen and ink, giving your words and sentences plenty of room. In all cases the real name and address of the writer must accompany the manuscript. Articles which redound to personal or individual benefit, or are of a personal nature, will only be inserted as "advertisements" or "paid cards."

THEODORE TILTON says the Democracy are ready to vote for the devil. Theodore has some hope then of getting their votes.

FIRE.—The alarm rang about one o'clock yesterday afternoon, was caused by the burning out of a chimney on the corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson and 393 Main street, have received New York Ledger, Chimney Corner, Pen and Pencil, Family Zeitung, Boston Pilot, Emerald, Welcome Guest, Kelley's Weekly, Banner of Light (spiritual), La Crosse Democrat, Sunday Times, Southern Opinion, and dailies as usual.

THE WEATHER.—The heat was, as usual, intense yesterday during the forenoon, but about noon a storm came up which reduced the temperature eight degrees in a half hour. Considerable rain fell in the city and the suburbs during the afternoon.

PEPPERED THEM.—Some thieving young mackerels who were helping themselves from the orchard of a friend of ours day before yesterday, all at once found themselves the recipients of a well directed dose of 'mustard seed.' We are informed that the last that was seen of them they were traveling for dear life, not much hurt, but scared "a heap."

THE NEATEST, completest little drug store in town, or out of it, is that of Theo. Hoerner, Nos. 52 and 54 Beal street; and Mr. Hoerner is a graduated chemist, who thoroughly understands his business—having spent many years in European schools of Pharmacy. We confidently recommend him to the neighborhood as reliable in every way.

RUMORS.—The town was full last night of all sorts of exciting rumors from the scalawag Convention at Brownsville. At one time there was a big free fight going on between the scalawags, and the town was on fire. At another, Judge Lewis had shot and killed the great Ku-Klux catcher. At another, he had only given him a black eye. At one time Smith was the nominee, and at another, Nunn. All accounts agreed, however, in saying that there had been a jolly row and somebody was hurt, so note it be.

Business, Visiting and Wedding Cards Printed at the Lowest Prices at the Appeal Job Office.

SCALEYWAGGERY.—We announced yesterday that there was another split in the fraternal Radical party, and that another Richmond was in the field against Smith and Nunn. We learn that this new aspirant for scalawag promotion is a promising young man, who is a wagon painter by trade, but has lately turned his attention to the law. His chances for election, we fear, were completely ruined yesterday by his having to take the "pauper's oath,"—and we all know in these degenerate times, "no money, no voter."

OLD FRIENDS AGAIN ON THEIR FEET.—In another column will be found an announcement from Messrs. M. T. Garvin & Co., that they have sold out their entire stock of groceries to Messrs. H. S. King & Co., and under the same is a card from Messrs. H. S. King and B. W. Coleman, announcing that they have formed a copartnership for the transaction of a grocery, general commission and produce business, at the old stand of Messrs. Garvin & Co., 226 and 228 Second street. It is with no ordinary degree of pleasure that we received the card of Messrs. King & Coleman, and now call the attention of our readers to it. For ten years before the war these gentlemen were well and most favorably known to our Memphis public. By honesty, fairness of dealing, and hard, unremitting labor, they had earned for themselves not only an enviable reputation, but a handsome property. The blasts of war came and stripped them, as it did all throughout our Southern land who were true to Dixie, of the proceeds of the toil of years. Since the war they have been struggling to regain a foothold, and we are more than happy to say have succeeded, for it is impossible to keep such men down. We know that hundreds of their old friends will welcome them again into the mercantile arena, and extend to them that patronage which they formerly held, and now so richly merit.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME.

Their Reunion Yesterday.

Large Concourse Present.

The annual reunion of the "Old Folks" yesterday at Bartlett, eleven miles from the city, was attended by one of the largest concourses we have seen for many a day, old and young, grave and gay. Many of the most refined and beautiful ladies of the city and county, as well as the most enlightened and distinguished of our citizens were present. Hon. E. M. Yerger was orator of the day, and acquitted himself quite gracefully and feelingly. At about the close of Col. Yerger's oration, the heavy clouds which had for some time been gathering, let loose a torrent of rain which was to hundreds uncomfortably refreshing. A large portion of the crowd were literally drenched. While all regretted to see the rain come at so inopportune a moment, yet it was a source of general gratification that it should have at last descended in so liberal a manner, and thus added so materially to the prospects of the neighboring farmers. Notwithstanding, however, this inopportune incident, as soon as the storm passed, the barbecue was rather irregularly served; but there proved to be a bountiful supply of all the viands and vegetables of the season, which had been excellently cooked and not at all injured by the copious shower—which had proved so disastrous to crinoline. There was general gayety and merriment at the disarrangement of costumes, instead of any disposition to view the matter with regret.

After dinner a good band struck up some of the familiar cotillion airs, and the gay and elegant portion of the party enjoyed themselves until the departure of the last train for the city. Altogether it was a most enjoyable occasion, and enhances the disposition of our citizens to encourage these social reunions of our noble pioneers.

MEETING OF THE BAR.

Tribute of Respect to the Late W. G. Thompson.

At an adjourned meeting of the members of the bar, held in the Chancery Court room, on Thursday, the 23d of July, J. M. Gregory, Esq., chairman, the committee heretofore appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the feeling of the bar relative to the decease of W. G. Thompson, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Omnipotent Dispenser of events, in His inscrutable providence, to cut off with sudden death, and to remove from the midst of his brethren William G Thompson, a member of the Memphis bar, who was, we are informed, a native of Tennessee, but had at an early period of his life emigrated to her sister State of Mississippi and settled at Jackson, where he successfully and assiduously practiced law until, his health failing him, he removed to the city of Memphis, and continued with unwearied zeal and industry the avocation which he had adopted, and which he loved and honored. He attained, and justly merited with all who knew him, the reputation of an able and talented lawyer, who was well read and very conversant with the legal lore of his profession, but was always modest, and never sought to make a display of his erudition. His moral character was without reproach; his affections and kindness were warm and generous; his personal and social relations were distinguished by those amenities of life which mark the true gentleman. In his professional intercourse, he invariably exhibited a kindly courtesy, affability and urbanity of manner which challenged the esteem of all who had business connections with him. He may have had faults, (who of us have not?) but his moral and intellectual qualities so greatly predominated over them that his eminent virtues and excellencies of character shone with a lustre that dimmed into oblivion the recollection of his errors. He possessed unswerving integrity, and a strict adherence to the truth. Another of the bright galaxy who illumined the forum and the bench, has been summoned to appear before the august Judge, whose mandate we must all obey. It affords the bar of Memphis a mournful satisfaction to bear testimony on this occasion to the sterling merit and ability of William G. Thompson, who, though he has passed from time to eternity, will still live in our memories; therefore

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of Wm. G. Thompson, whose death we sincerely regret, and whose memory we revere and respect; that we cordially extend our sympathies of condolence to the bereaved for the calamity which has afflicted them; and that we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days as a testimonial of our appreciation of our departed brother.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the different courts of the city, and be asked to be spread upon the minutes of the said courts; that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the city papers.

J. E. TEMPLE,
R. G. MORGAN,
C. W. FRAYSER,
J. O. PIERCE,
GEO. B. ST. JOHN,
Committee.

In compliance with the resolution, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen to present the resolutions to the various courts: United States Court, T. S. Ayers; Law Court, Hon. M. Yerger; Municipal Court, B. M. Estes; Circuit Court, Col. Kellar; Chancery Court, Judge Heath.

On motion, the meeting adjourned sine die.

J. M. GREGORY, Chairman.
VAN A. W. ANDERSON, Secretary.

THE EARLY CLOSING MOVEMENT.

We have received quite a number of communications on this subject. The following, which goes over the whole ground, we recommend to the attention of our merchants. The eight hour system has been adopted almost everywhere, and we think that our merchants will find it consonant with their interests to grant the request of their employees in this matter:

MEMPHIS, TENN., July 22, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Would it not be best for merchants, grocers, booksellers and cotton brokers to close their places of business at four o'clock, p.m., each day except Saturday, thereby allowing their employees a few hours' recreation before night. In New Orleans and several Northern cities this plan has been tried and found to work much better than the old one of keeping open until night.

No one will lose by it, while a great deal will be gained. Speak to them through the columns of your journal, and advise all to open their places of business at, say seven o'clock a.m., and close at 4 o'clock p.m., thereby affording ample time for the transaction of all necessary business, besides three hours for recreation or pleasure to employer and employees. C. D. L.

CLUB MEETING.—The Conservative Democratic Club of the Ninth Ward, will meet this evening, at 7:30 o'clock, corner of Fifth and Saffrans streets. A large attendance is desired, as there will be business of importance to transact.

DENTAL ASSOCIATION.

Proceedings Yesterday.

The Association met pursuant to adjournment, at Dr. Arrington's office, at 4 p.m. yesterday. The fourth and fifth subjects of discussion were indefinitely passed over.

Miscellaneous subjects being next in order, a number of gentlemen took part in the discussion of maxelary sinus, and the best mode of treatment; and also the best mode of keeping cavities dry while manipulating a filling.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned till 8 p.m.

THIRD DAY.

The Association met this morning pursuant to adjournment, Dr. Arrington in the chair.

The Committee on Membership reported favorably on the petitions of Drs. F. F. Linde, of Memphis, and J. L. Newborn, of Bolivar, and both gentlemen were unanimously elected members of the Association.

Drs. Wasson, Morgan and Elliott were appointed a committee to draft resolutions on the death of Dr. W. P. Wilson, of Nashville.

Discussion was then resumed, and the subject of artificial bases occupied the attention of the Association up to the hour of adjournment at noon to-day.

THE CAMPAIGN.

MEETING OF THE OVERTON HOTEL INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The meeting was called to order by temporary chairman Louis Spillman. On motion the following officers were elected: President, R. C. Church; Vice Presidents, John Healy, James Henrietta, James King, Patrick Stack; Secretary, P. H. Smith; Corresponding Secretary, Louis Schiffner; Treasurer, Wm. Gleason; Committee on Permanent Organization, R. C. Church, P. H. Smith, Louis Schiffner, Wm. Gleason; Committee on Hall, Thomas Murray, Edward Williams; Committee to wait on Central Club, R. C. Church, P. H. Smith, Louis Schiffner. The meeting adjourned at 11 p.m., till next Friday at 8 p.m.

DEMOCRATS OF GREENWOOD, RALLY! RALLY!!—You are earnestly requested to meet at College Grove Garden—the southern terminus of the Hernando street railroad—on Friday the 24th inst., at 8 p.m., for the purpose of organization. It is hoped that all within the neighborhood disposed toward a free government, and a restoration of our liberties, will be punctually present. Judge T. W. Brown, and other distinguished gentlemen, will address you.

ORGANIZATION OF THE THIRD WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The Democrats of the Third Ward met at the engine-house, on the corner of Second and Adams street, last night, to organize a ward club. Col. F. A. Tyler, of the Ledger, was elected President, C. W. Metcalf, Esq., Secretary, and the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on organization: Messrs. M. R. Mitchell, Thomas Barrett and J. P. Adams. Several eloquent addresses were made, and the meeting adjourned.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The Democrats and Conservatives of the 12th Civil District of Shelby county are requested to meet at the magistrate's office of Hume F. Hill, at Buntyn's Station, on Saturday next, the 25th inst., at 5 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of organizing a Seymour & Blair Club. Speeches will be made, after which watermelons will be cut promiscuously.

DEMOCRATIC NEGROES.—We understand that there is to be a colored Seymour club organized on Tuesday night next. Godfrey Wilkerson and a few other sensible and peaceable negroes head the movement. They will have the aid and countenance of every good citizen in our midst.

THE officers and different committees of the Y. M. I. D. Club, are earnestly requested to meet at the Stillman Hall this morning at 10 o'clock, as business of importance will be considered.

POLICE ITEMS.

—Some robber, not having the fear of God before his eyes, entered the office of 'Squire Walton, on Wednesday night, and stole a valuable gold watch out of one of the drawers in his desk.

—There were no courts held at the Police stations yesterday—the Commissioners all being out of town.

—The residence of Mrs. C. Holcombe, No. 149 Elliott street, was entered by burglars, on Wednesday night, and a couple of hundred dollars' worth of clothing stolen therefrom.

—'Squire Black issued a warrant yesterday at the instance of Minnie Brown, who charges Sallie Myers with stealing a pair of shoes from her. Sallie goes up in default of $500 bail.

—Abe Huggins, one of Africa's degenerate sons, pulled the wool over the eyes of a Mr. R. S. Quinn, a few days ago, and obtained a lot of goods under false pretenses. Yesterday the deceiving cuss was brought before 'Squire Black, and sent up in default of $2000 bond, to answer to the Criminal Court.

—Mr. S. C. Sevier had Chas. Moody arrested, on charge of assault with attempt to kill. On examining the case, 'Squire Griffith fined the defendant $2 and costs, and dismissed the case.

—Gus Mosely stole a pair of boots, and was walked off to the Second District Station by an officer who saw him.

—There were six arrests up to eleven o'clock p.m. in the First District. All for trifling offenses.

—Five arrests were reported up to eight o'clock in the lower District.

PERSONAL.

—Capt. W. H. Rhea, formerly of the Avalanche, is in the city.

—Capt. Adams, of Little Rock, Ark., left the city yesterday evening on the Natoma.

—G. W. L. Crook, Esq., General Insurance Agent, returned to the city yesterday. Mr. Crook has made additional arrangements enabling him to carry all amounts offered him for insurance.

BANKRUPTCY SALE.—Fancy Goods, Perfumery, etc., at No. 195 Main street, for ten days only. jy24 eod 10t

A GREAT CHANCE.—We call the attention of grocery merchants, wholesale and retail, to the card which appears in our column of new advertisements, of Messrs. Newcomb, Buchanan & Co. These gentlemen advertise for sale, at auction, a splendid lot of sugars, syrups and coffee, to be sold at sixty days' credit on approved paper, without interest. The sale is positive, and will commence at 10 o'clock a.m. Thursday, July 30, at warehouse No. 34 Fourth street, Louisville, Ky. This is a chance too rare to be thrown away, and all buyers will do well to look at the advertisement.

LLOYD, CLARKE & Co. have fruit jars.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Blair has removed his office from corner of Adams and Second streets to No. 225 Main street, Worsham House Block. jy21 1w

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT—A. Alston, Clerk and Master.—The Clerk and Master will take accounts to-day in the cases of Butler et al. vs. Small et al.; Thompson vs. Gillespie.

LAW COURT—James O'Pierce, Judge. The calendar of cases was called on yesterday up to No. 982. A few judgments were taken. To-day the docket will be called commencing at case No. 982, and running up to No. 1000. It is possible that the docket may be called even beyond that number.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran Judge.—Meets to-day pursuant to adjournment. To day being motion day, the clerk will call the cases on the motion docket as usual.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—No business was transacted on yesterday—the proceedings of Court being suspended in consequence of the death of the late W. G. Thompson, Esq., a member of the Memphis bar. Yesterday morning the jury in the case of the State vs. James Brown, indictment for murder, returned into Court and asked for further instructions, which were given by the Court. They reported at 2 o'clock p.m. that they were unable to agree upon a verdict. At 7 o'clock last evening they again reported that they were unable to agree. A verdict will probably be rendered this morning. To-day the case of the State vs. William O'Hern, larceny, will be called up for trial.

ALMOST AN ITEM.—As one of Messrs. Patterson & Keck's fine omnibuses came rattling down Main street from the Louisville depot yesterday about half-past three o'clock, just before it reached the Overton, a reckless boy attempted to cross the street immediately in front of it. The driver of the 'bus did all in his power to stop his horses, but his efforts were ineffectual, and in spite of all he could do, the pole struck the boy, knocking him down, and the wheels of the 'bus passed over him. Strange to relate, the youngster was not hurt, and before the driver or any one else had time to reach him, he had picked himself up and limped off.

Messrs. W. R. Wigg & Co.:

Gentlemen: For several years I was troubled more or less with Piles, for which complaint I was treated by the best physicians to no purpose; indeed, I gradually became worse, until at last I began to despair of relief from any source. While in this condition I was recommended to try your Buckeye Salve. Making up my mind to try it, I am now happy to say that it had the desired effect, as I am now well and hearty, for which I am indebted to your wonderful remedy. Yours, truly,

F. L. WARNER.

Upon receipt of $1 00 a bottle of this Salve will be mailed, free of postage.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, July 23.—The river is falling at this point.

CAIRO, July 23.—Down—City of Alton, 6 p.m.; Lizzie Gill, 7 p.m.

The river fell 5 inches.

Mercury 86.

LOUISVILLE, July 23.—The river is falling fast, with 3 feet 3 inches in the canal.

The weather is cloudy. Thermometer 89.

Arrived—Argosy from New Orleans.

MEMPHIS, July 24.—Weather cloudy and sultry. The river here came to a stand yesterday. The packets report mark twain in the channel from Cairo down, and nine feet scant from there to St. Louis. The Ohio is receding from Pittsburg down, with three and a half feet in the canal and five feet on the bars in the Lower Ohio. White river is falling, with eight feet in the channel through to Augusta. The Arkansas continues low, with two feet scant in the channel from Little Rock to the mouth.

MISCELLANEOUS.

There was little or no business doing on the wharf yesterday, with but one arrival and three departures. Freights for all points continue scarce, with little travel.

An envelope was lost on Wednesday evening, addressed to C. B. S. Jones, containing a lot of papers, valuable to him alone. Mr. Jones is an old steamboatman and will liberally reward the finder by leaving the envelope and contents at this office.

Capt. Ike Whittaker is loading the R. C. Gray at Cincinnati for Memphis.

The Frank Pargoud and Lizzie Gill are due this evening from St. Louis.

The City of Alton is the regular Saturday St. Louis packet.

The Emma No. 3 is due from New Orleans.

The Legal Tender will be due to-morrow from Louisville.

The Julia is the regular Saturday Vicksburg packet.

The Arkansas river is at low tide.

The W. A. Caldwell will be repaired, and repainted and fixed up in the finest style for the fall trade.

Captain John B. Davis and family, of this city, are visiting at St. Paul. An exchange says that Captain Davis' voyage, about ten years ago, to the sources of the Minnesota river, with a view to connecting the navigable streams of the Minnesota and Red river of the North, will be long remembered.

The Mat. Burns is loading at St. Louis for the Arkansas river.

There is some talk of replacing the Mayflower in the Memphis and Evansville trade.

The Marble City backed out for St. Louis, with a slim passenger trip.

The Natoma cleared for Napoleon with a fair trip for the times.

The regular Saturday White river mail packet, Liberty No. 2, in command of Capt. James Rice, will be at the wharf this morning to receive for White river and all way points, and leave on Saturday. Messrs. Milt. Harry and Charley Sharpe, two amiable gentlemen, have charge of the office.

The Luminary, Capt. Luker, with Capt. Lee Finney in the office, will leave today at 5 p.m. for Cairo and St. Louis.

Montana papers state that the steamer Guldon is to be taken bodily overland around the great falls above Benton, and is hereafter to ply as a regular packet in waters heretofore undisturbed by a steamer's wheel, adding many more miles to the navigation of the Missouri. It is another "Western enterprise. The boat will be placed on skids, and snaked overland on bull trains.

St. Louis exchanges of Wednesday have the following: "River falling fast here. There will be a stage of only six feet or less to Cairo by and by. Then will steamboatmen and barges encounter trouble, and rates of freight will be higher than now. Then will be found also several boats running below that have been known as Missouri river packets. The last boats up report nine feet water at Herculaneum, above Cairo, and the same at Island 34, below Cairo. All the upper rivers are falling. The Mississippi about Dubuque is also lower than at any time last year."

The Rubicon will leave for Vicksburg on her regular day next week. She will make her debut as a beauty of the first water.

A Pine Bluff exchange of the 18th says: "The river at this point continues almost too low for steamers to ply between the mouth and Little Rock. We have heard a rumor of a small rise in the upper river."

Creditors and Non-Resident Notice.

In Chancery Court of Memphis, Tennessee, No. 2435, N. R. D.—W. N. Wilkerson, et al., vs. Nashville Insurance and Banking Company, et al.

In this cause it appearing that defendants Joseph F. Imbs, John F. Meyer and Louis Fusz (form of "Imbs, Meyer & Fusz"), are non-residents of the State of Tennessee: It is therefore ordered by the Court, that they make their appearance herein, on or before the first Monday in May, 1868, and plead, answer or demur to complainant's bill, or the same will be taken for confessed as to them, and cause set for hearing ex parte. It is further ordered that all persons claiming to be creditors, or having any character of demands, against the "Franklin Insurance and Banking Company of Memphis," shall immediately come into this Court and have themselves made parties to this suit, and file their claims with the Clerk and Master, with proper evidence of the same, that they may severally recover their ratable shares of the assets of said Company, to be distributed in this cause; and that a copy of this order be published in the Memphis Daily Appeal for three (3) months from this date.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty years we have been manufacturing Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest Instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other first Class House.

The tone of these Instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years.

IMPORTANT to PLANTERS.

FRIAR'S POINT, MISS., June 10, 1868.

Messrs. MANSFIELD & HIGBEE,

Druggists, Memphis, Tennessee:

GENTLEMEN: You ask me for my statement relative to your cure for KNOTS PLAIN or CHARBONE IN HORSES and MULES, which you style

"MAGIC ARNICA LINIMENT."

I have used your Liniment in about two dozen cases with perfect success. I had lost all hope of a remedy, but believe your discovery "THE SAVIOUR." I have not failed in a single case in which I have applied your Liniment, I believe it a valuable discovery. Think every planter should provide himself with the Magic Arnica Liniment. No planter should be without your remedy where this terrible disease prevails. I have supplied each of my plantations. My supervisors report favorable upon every trial.

Very respectfully, yours, etc.,

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, July 23, 1868.

There was very little doing in financial matters to-day. The re-opening of the Merchants' National Bank is the chief subject of conversation in money circles, and surmises as to when it will resume were quite varied. We have it upon good authority that either on Saturday or Monday its doors will be open for business, if not to-morrow, as we intimated in our last. A full and complete statement of its affairs will be given to the public which will show it to be upon a footing surpassed by no similar institution in the South.

The New York coin market was easier, loans making again at 2½ per cent, but the rates of yesterday were well maintained, gold opening at 143¼ and closing firm. Dealers here bought a few small sums over the counter at 141@141½, and were holding at 142¼, although we heard of a sale of $500 at 142. The market was very dull.

Currency is setting in eastward. Nearly if not all of our discount houses have been compelled to ship within the past few days as there may be said to be no exchange making. Rates are uniform and firm. We quote at par to ¼ prem. buying and checking at ¼ to ⅜ prem—the latter is the rate on New York.

Bonds and stocks are dull and nominal. We quote City bonds, 54@56c. Memphis & Charleston railroad stock, 52@53c. Memphis Gas Company stock, $1 50; Mississippi Central Railroad, 1st mortgage bonds, 58c; 2d do. 40c. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage bonds, 50c. Memphis and Louisville 1st mortgage bonds, 30@32c; 2d do. 20c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 40c.

The following are the New York quotations for Government securities to-day: Coupons '81, 15½; do '62, 14½; do '64, 11½; do '65, 12½; new issue, 9; do '67, 9½; 10-40s, 8½; 7-30s, 2d and 3d, 8¼; Old Tennessees, 65½; new do 65. Government bonds steady.

City Scrip is firm but quiet. The demand is very good. From $250,000 to $300,000 in scrip will be cancelled this week, which will leave but a very small amount upon the market. We quote nominally at 73@75c buying. Brokers generally are not selling.

County Warrants are in demand at 55c buying. Selling at 56@55c.

Police Scrip dull at 70c buying. Selling at 73@75c.

A process has recently been patented in England by which the bran of flour, after being separated, is ground into an impalpable powder, and then again mixed with the flour. In this way all the nutritious ingredients are preserved, while the fineness of the flour is not affected.

The ancient Japanese laws against the emigration of the people are beginning to be disregarded in the existing confusions of the Mikado's Empire. Some time ago between three and four hundred of his subjects went away to Saigon to work, under contract, for some Dutch merchants; and the latest accounts from the Sandwich Islands say that an English ship brought about one hundred and fifty Japanese emigrants to Honolulu, where they were at once taken possession of by the emigration agents and engaged for three years to labor in the agriculture of the islands. The subjects of King Kamehameha are a feeble and dwindling race, and the style of American progress introduced into his Kingdom makes it a vital necessity that stronger workers shall be invited to take part in it.

In Liverpool the market underwent a further decline of ⅛@¼d on Uplands, and closed active and steady at 10¼d for Uplands and 10⅞@11d for Orleans, with sales for the day of 12,000 bales. Shipments from Bombay for the week ending July 21st were 9000 bales.

The New York market closed dull and declining; no quotations reported; sales, 700 bales.

Holders of the few small lots of cotton on hand begin to feel anxious, and we heard talk to-day of shipping, in view of the declining tendency in leading markets. A few bales of Ordinary changed hands at 24½, and 6 bales Low Middling at 27½.
